Shifting to Online Learning Through Faculty Collaborative Support Crawford, Caroline M., 2021-06-18 As a result of the COVID 19 pandemic most schools had to suddenly shift from traditional face to face courses to blended synchronous and asynchronous instructional environments The impact upon the immediacy of remote learning was overwhelming to many faculty instructional facilitators teachers and trainers Many faculty and trainers have experience with the analysis design development implementation and evaluation of online and blended learning environments while many faculty and trainers also do not have this knowledge nor experience As such the collegial workspace has developed into a collaborative work environment wherein the faculty are helping faculty partially because the instructional designer staff and learning advisors are overwhelmed with the number of course projects that must be moved from traditional face to face course environments into an online environment within a short period of time The faculty are helping each other make this move offering course design and development support and also instructional tips and tricks that will support successful blended and online experiences that enhance learning outcomes Shifting to Online Learning Through Faculty Collaborative Support focuses on supporting and enhancing blended and distance learning course design and development successful tips for course design and teaching techniques for online learning and embracing collegial mentorship and facilitative support for course and faculty success This book highlights the strength of collegial bonds while discussing tools methods procedural efforts styles of engagement learning theories assessment efforts and even social learning engagement implementations in online learning It provides information and lessons and embraces a long term approach towards understanding institutional impact and collegial support This book is valuable for school administrators teachers course designers instructional designers school faculty business and administrative leadership practitioners stakeholders researchers academicians and students interested in how faculty collaborative support is playing a critical role in improving and developing successful online learning

Assessing Learners Online Albert Oosterhof,Rita-Marie Conrad,Donald P. Ely,2008 Online assessment and more broadly the entire online learning environment provides expanded opportunities to actively and creatively engage the learner The approach the authors have taken in this book is to work from the established fundamentals of assessment applying these principles to the online environment The authors emphasize basic issues of assessment such as establishing the evidence of validity for assessments but the context of the discussion is always that of an online environment Written by leading technology experts this clear and practical text serves as a training guide for assessing online or distance learners Readers learn how to select what should be assessed how to use written tests and projects to evaluate the skills learners have achieved how to provide feedback to learners and how to efficiently use course management software The authors believe educators involved with online training and education must have the same assessment expectations and standards as those in conventional face to face environments This book is appropriate for instructional designers and educators involved with online training and education as well as for college courses concerned with the design and delivery of distance or other forms of online instruction It also has utility as a personal reference for instructors of courses that assess students online
