the letters Percy Bysshe Shelley wrote to Mary Shelley's stepsister Claire Clairmont who saved them until she died. Set in Venice, The Aspern Papers demonstrates James's ability to generate suspense while never neglecting the development of his characters. A nameless narrator goes to Venice to find Juliana Bordereau, an old lover of Jeffrey Aspern, a famous and now dead American poet. The narrator presents himself to the old woman as a prospective lodger and is prepared to court her niece Miss Tita, renamed Miss Tina in later editions, a plain, somewhat naive spinster in hopes of getting a look at some of Aspern's letters and other papers kept by Juliana. Miss Tita had denied the existence of any such papers in a letter to the narrator and his publishing partner, but he believes she was dissembling on instructions from Juliana. The narrator eventually discloses his intentions to Miss Tita, who promises to help him. Later, Juliana offers to sell a portrait miniature of Aspern to the narrator for an exorbitant price. She doesn't mention Jeffrey Aspern's name, but the narrator still believes she possesses some of his letters. When the old woman falls ill, the narrator ventures into her room and gets caught by Juliana as he is about to rifle her desk for the letters. Juliana calls the narrator a publishing scoundrel and collapses. The narrator flees, and when he returns some days later, he discovers that Juliana has died. Miss Tita hints that he can have the Aspern letters if he marries her. Again, the narrator flees. At first, he feels he can never accept the proposal, but gradually, he begins to change his mind. When he returns to see Miss Tita, she bids him farewell and tells him that she has burned all the letters, one by one. The narrator never sees the precious papers, but he does send Miss Tita some money for the miniature portrait of Aspern that she gives him.

The Aspern Papers and Other Stories Henry James, 2013-02-14 There's no baseness I wouldn't commit for Jeffrey Aspern's sake. The poet Aspern, long since dead, has left behind some private papers. They are jealously guarded by an old lady, once his mistress and muse, a recluse in an old palazzo in Venice, tended by her ingenuous niece. A predatory critic is determined to seize them. What can he make of the younger woman? What are his motives? What are the papers worth, and what is he prepared to pay? In all four stories collected here, including The Death of the Lion, The Figure in the Carpet, and The Birthplace, the figure of the artist is central. Extraordinarily prophetic, James explores the emergent new cult of the writer as celebrity and asks who cares about the work for itself. Can the man behind the artist ever truly be known, and does our knowledge explain the act of creativity? This new edition includes extracts from James' Prefaces and Notebooks, which shed light on the genesis of the stories.
