complex filmmaker This insightful book analyzes all of Fincher's feature films as well as examples of his commercials and pop videos tracing key influences that include his background in special effects It considers how he creates roles for strong women how he has extended the detective genre and how he adapts cult texts The book also questions whether Fincher's films famous for their downbeat endings and dark visual style are really bleak or just part of an unconventional approach to filmmaking In the end readers will understand the development of Fincher's individual films and appreciate how the films relate closely to each other

Phallic Panic Barbara Creed,2015-08-18 Vampires werewolves cannibals and slashers why do audiences find monsters in movies so terrifying In Phallic Panic Barbara Creed ranges widely across film literature and myth throwing new light on this haunted territory Looking at classic horror films such as Frankenstein The Shining and Jack the Ripper Creed provocatively questions the anxieties fears and the subversive thrills behind some of the most celebrated monsters This follow up to her influential book The Monstrous Feminine is an important and enjoyable read for scholars and students of film cultural studies psychoanalysis and the visual arts

After Francis Bacon Nicholas Chare,2017-07-05 Like an analyst listening to a patient this study attends not just to what is said in David Sylvester's interviews with Francis Bacon but also crucially to what is left unspoken to revealing interruptions and caesuras Through interpreting these silences After Francis Bacon breaks with stereotypical ideas about the artist's work and provides new readings and avenues of research After Francis Bacon is the first book to give extended consideration to the way the reception of Bacon's art including Gilles Deleuze's influential text on the artist has been shaped by the Sylvester interviews and to move beyond the limiting effects of the interviews providing fresh interpretations Nicholas Chare draws upon recent developments in psychoanalysis and forensic psychology to present innovative readings of Bacon's work primarily based on the themes of sadomasochism and multi sensory perception Through bringing Bacon's paintings into dialogue with Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness and the film Alien he also provides original insights into the ethical relevance the artist's works have for today This study addresses the complexities of the artist's practice particularly in relation to sexuality and synaesthesia and additionally forms a crucial intervention within current debates about creative writing in art history

On Film Stephen Mulhall,2008-03-25 In this significantly expanded new edition of his acclaimed exploration of the four Alien movies Stephen Mulhall adds several new chapters on Steven Spielberg's Mission Impossible trilogy and Minority Report The first part of the book discusses the four Alien movies Mulhall argues that the sexual significance of the aliens themselves and of Ripley's resistance to them takes us deep into the question of what it is to be human At the heart of the book is a highly original and controversial argument that films themselves can philosophize Mulhall then applies his interpretative model to another sequence of contemporary Hollywood movies the Mission Impossible series A brand new chapter is devoted to each of the three films in the series and to other films by the relevant directors that cast light on their individual contribution to it In this discussion the nature of television becomes as central a concern as the nature of cinema and the shift in generic focus from science fiction to thriller also makes room for a detailed reading of Spielberg's Minority Report. On Film Second Edition is essential reading for anyone interested in philosophy, film theory, and cultural studies and in the way philosophy can enrich our understanding of cinema.

Phoebe, 2005     David Thomson on the Alien Quartet David Thomson, 1998     No Cure for the Future Gary Westfahl, George Slusser, 2002-09-30 Offers a broad study of the history of medicine in science fiction and fantasy literature and film as well as detailed examinations of some of the field's greatest works     Ridley Scott James Clarke, 2002 With the dystopian sci-fi of Blade Runner, the feminist road movie Thelma & Louise, and the Roman epic Gladiator, Ridley Scott has demonstrated that he is an astonishingly versatile director, equally at home with ancient history as he is with the distant future. Combining vivid imagery with rich drama, Scott's films are the epitome of intelligent cinema: a powerful marriage of style and content. Scott has worked with many of Hollywood's most accomplished stars, including Sigourney Weaver, Brad Pitt, Russell Crowe, Anthony Hopkins, Susan Sarandon, and Tom Cruise. Alien is only his second feature as a director, but it remains one of the most enduring and influential examples of the science-fiction and horror genre, and with Black Hawk Down, Hannibal, and the magnificent Gladiator, Scott's career has regained the prominence it had in the late 1970s and early 1980s. This indispensable guide provides a thorough chronological examination of Ridley Scott's directorial career. All of Scott's films are included, along with information on his frequent collaborators, his thoughts on his own films, and a section on his unrealized projects. This is the essential reference guide to one of mainstream cinema's most diverse directors.     The Science of Aliens Jack Challoner, 2005 Are we alone? The idea of life existing elsewhere in the Universe has been put forward by philosophers since the time of Ancient Egypt. Today, through science-fiction literature, films, and television, we have all had close encounters with aliens. Now The Science of Aliens examines the possibilities of alien life in outer space, as well as presenting a close-up look at aliens on Earth. Based on an international interactive exhibition, The Science of Aliens is a combination of imagination and ground-breaking science in the quest for extraterrestrial life. BOOK JACKET     Anatomy of Wonder Neil Barron, 2004-12-30 This classic work is an essential tool for collection development, research, reference, and readers advisory work. BOOK JACKET     Alien Sex Gerard Loughlin, 2008-04-15 Gerard Loughlin is one of the leading theologians working at the interface between religion and contemporary culture. In this exceptional work, he uses cinema and the films it shows to think about the church and the visions of desire it displays. Discusses various films, including The Alien Quartet, Christopher Nolan's Memento, Stanley Kubrick's 2001 A Space Odyssey, and A Clockwork Orange. Nicolas Roeg's The Man Who Fell to Earth and Derek Jarman's The Garden. Draws on a wide range of authors, both ancient and modern, religious and secular, from Plato to Levinas, from Karl Barth and Hans Urs von Balthasar to Andr  Bazin and Leo Bersani. Uses cinema to think about the church as an ecclesiastic cinema and films to think about sexual desire as erotic dispossession as a way into the life of God. Written from a radically orthodox Christian perspective, at once both Catholic and critical.     Paul Scott Kanatur Bhaskara Rao, 1980     (M)Othering the Nation Lisa Bernstein, 2008 This book explores how cultural narratives represent the mother as nation in ways that both reinforce and challenge traditional normative roles and create new forms of social identity for women     The Chesterian ,1924     University of Edinburgh Journal ,1999
