Bare Facts Video Guide 1998:

Videoland Daniel Herbert, 2014-01-24 Videoland offers a comprehensive view of the tangible phase of consumer video when Americans largely accessed movies as material commodities at video rental stores. Video stores served as a vital locus of movie culture from the early 1980s until the early 2000s, changing the way Americans socialized around movies and collectively made movies meaningful. When films became tangible as magnetic tapes and plastic discs, movie culture flowed out from the theater and the living room entered the public retail space and became conflated with shopping and salesmanship. In this process, video stores served as a crucial embodiment of movie culture's historical move toward increased flexibility, adaptability, and customization. In addition to charting the historical rise and fall of the rental industry, Herbert explores the architectural design of video stores, the social dynamics of retail encounters, the video distribution industry, the proliferation of video recommendation guides, and the often surprising persistence of the video store as an adaptable social space of consumer culture. Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork, cultural geography, and archival research, Videoland provides a wide-ranging exploration of the pivotal role video stores played in the history of motion pictures and is a must-read for students and scholars of media history.

Unspeakable Shakespeare, Revised Edition NA NA, 2016-04-30 Unspeakable Shakespeare is a savvy look at the wide range of adaptations, spin-offs, and citations of Shakespeare's plays in 1990s popular culture. What does it say about our culture when Shakespearean references turn up in television episodes of The Brady Bunch and Gilligan's Island, films such as In and Out and My Own Private Idaho, and hardcore porn adaptations of Hamlet and Romeo and Juliet? Burt reads the reception of these often quite bad replays in relation to contemporary youth culture and the queering of Shakespeare.

Nobody's Perfect Anthony Lane, 2009-08-19 Anthony Lane on Con Air Advance word on Con Air said that it was all about an airplane with an unusually dangerous and potentially lethal load. Big deal. You should try the lunches they serve out of Newark. Compared with the chicken napalm I ate on my last flight, the men in Con Air are about as dangerous as balloons.

Anthony Lane on The Bridges of Madison County I got my copy at the airport behind a guy who was buying Playboy's Book of Lingerie and I think he had the better deal. He certainly looked happy with his purchase, whereas I had to ask for a paper bag.

Anthony Lane on Martha Stewart Super-skilled, free of fear, the last word in human efficiency. Martha Stewart is the woman who convinced a million Americans that they have the time, the means, the right, and damn it, the duty to pipe a little squirt of soft cheese into the middle of a snow pea and to continue piping until there are fifty to sixty stuffed peas raring to go. For ten years, Anthony Lane has delighted New Yorker readers with his film reviews, book reviews, and profiles that range from Buster

Keaton to Vladimir Nabokov to Ernest Shackleton Nobody's Perfect is an unforgettable collection of Lane's trademark wit and satire and insight that will satisfy both the long addicted and the not so familiar West's Federal Supplement, 2000
