Blind Love:

Blind Love Bruce E. Hall, 2005 So many of us miss out on love because we fear what others may think about what we should do or whom we should love When we find love we should close our eyes because it s not to be seen It s to be felt Love is a human emotion set apart from race creed or color It s not what or who we were It s who we have become Love changes the way we think and what we believe It s an emotion that comes briefly for some but for others it lasts a lifetime This book was written for those who treat love as though it were clothing something we try on and discard if it doesn t fit For those who believe love can be put on hold until we decide it s time and for those who look for love only after looking at race know this Love has no time limit It has no color It s blind blind to the outer body It only sees what s inside It reacts on feelings something the eyes can never see That my friend is Blind Love

Purple Hearts and Silver Stars Janice Josephine Carney, 2004-12-16 In 1996 I celebrated a year of sobriety and began a journey of rebirth That year I developed confidence in myself that previously I never experienced I took my personal collection of notes diaries and tapes from my year in Vietnam and begin to organize them into a book In 1997 I completed the manuscript and titled it One Heart One Mind one man s memoir of a tour of Vietnam The book not only dealt with my year in Vietnam but with the emotional cost of the war on my soul and psyche With assistance from Jonathan Shay M D Ph D the author of Achilles in Vietnam a book about combat trauma and the undoing of character I tried unsuccessfully to get my book published In 1998 I legally changed my name from John Joseph to Janice Josephine and my writing now included transgender issues I felt that I had come to terms with my trauma from the Vietnam War and I was ready to move on In 1999 2000 I wrote and performed a play I Was Always Me The two act play is a monologue of my transition from John to Janice In the fall of 2000 I had my first article published in the Transgender Tapestry Magazine In 2001 I was the subject of a documentary TransJan produced and directed by Katherine Cronin Its premiere at the Provincetown International Film Festival opened the door for me and after each screening I conducted a Q A about transgender issues The latest screening of TransJan was in 2002 when it was selected to be one of the films for the Tampa Gay and Lesbian Film Festival In 2001 in Boston while performing readings of my poems and rants at Slams I met the writer Toni Amato Shortly after that meeting I begin attending Toni's creative writing workshops at Women's Words and later attended one of her weekend writer retreats. That year I presented TransJan and sat on panels at the Transcending Boundaries Conference at Yale University and at Speak Out a conference at Bunker Hill Community College in Boston. My most challenging event that year was the L B T Allies Strategy Summit in Vermont sponsored by the National Organization for Women. In 2002 I continued to do workshops using creative writing as a means of getting people to open up about transgender issues. I also put together a course of study on transgender issues called Transsexuals are Human. Also I conducted creative writing workshops at the Midwest L G B T Allies College Conference. Out of this conference came my transgender monologue and as My Vagina Monologue I performed this at the St Petersburg Metropolitan Community Church's Talent Show and it was published in the summer issue of the Transgender Tapestry Magazine. This year I have presented creative writing workshops at the International Foundation for Gender Education in Philadelphia, the New Hampshire Transgender Resources for Education and Empowerment at the University of New Hampshire in Durham and at Silver Threads a weekend retreat on St Pete Beach. I have put together a collection of my poems, rants and essays that are directly from a transwoman's heart called Purple Hearts and Silver Stars. One of my short stories was published as part of Mary Boenke's Trans Forming Families real stories about transgender loved ones. Later this year two short stories will be published in anthologies Pinned down by Pronouns <http://www.convictionbooks.com> and Translating Faith Pilgrim Press 700 Prospect Ave Cleveland Ohio. I am an active member of a local group of women artists called Women Artist Rising with whom I share my poems, rants and stories at various WAR events <http://www.womenartistsrising.com>. My new column Perspectives from a Trans woman that started in a local newsletter is now in syndication.
