Country Blue:

The Blue Ribbon Country Cookbook Diane Roupe, 2009-10-26 Nearly 1 000 crowd pleasing and award winning recipes presented in an easy step by step format to ensure success for anyone even beginners More than just a comprehensive cookbook The Blue Ribbon Country Cookbook contains easy to follow techniques and detailed explanations that ensure success Chapters include every type of food from soups and stews to pies and tarts and recipes range from traditional favorites to more contemporary dishes such as Fresh Pear Salad with Ginger Dressing and Rosemary Chicken with Red Raspberry Sauce What makes this book so special is not just the large number of recipes but also the amount of indispensable information that it contains An Amazon reviewer explains the book best After 16 years of marriage I was still not able to make some of the dishes my husband s mom did I never quite got it right I can now In her book Diane taught me the basics of cooking from scratch and now I receive the highest compliment As Good as Mom s and Grandma s The Cognitive Animal Marc Bekoff, Colin Allen, Gordon M. Burghardt, 2002-06-21 The fifty seven original essays in this book provide a comprehensive overview of the interdisciplinary field of animal cognition The contributors include cognitive ethologists behavioral ecologists experimental and developmental psychologists behaviorists philosophers neuroscientists computer scientists and modelers field biologists and others The diversity of approaches is both philosophical and methodological with contributors demonstrating various degrees of acceptance or disdain for such terms as consciousness and varying degrees of concern for laboratory experimentation versus naturalistic research In addition to primates particularly the nonhuman great apes the animals discussed include antelopes bees dogs dolphins earthworms fish hyenas parrots prairie dogs rats ravens sea lions snakes spiders and squirrels The topics include but are not limited to definitions of cognition the role of anecdotes in the study of animal cognition anthropomorphism attention perception learning memory thinking consciousness intentionality communication planning play aggression dominance predation recognition assessment of self and others social knowledge empathy conflict resolution reproduction parent young interactions and caregiving ecology evolution kin selection and neuroethology The Potentials and Pitfalls from National Blue Economy Plans Towards Sustainable Development Gerald Gurinder Singh, Michelle Voyer , Andrés M. Cisneros-Montemayor, 2026-03-25 Many nations around the world have established or are in the process of developing Blue Economy strategies so that marine management and economies can help achieve the UN Sustainable Development Goals Interest in a Blue Economy has also been heightened through a strategic lens of post COVID 19 economic recovery The promise of a Blue Economy includes interests in delivering large scale environmental protection alongside economic growth revitalizing coastal communities and development planning with coastal communities Any national Blue Economy plan will need to occur alongside other national priorities and through national institutions and capacities Learning from national cases can help inform the development of Blue Economy strategies and ocean related sustainable development policies around the world Marine sustainable development is a topic that has gained much attention given the multiple competing uses in marine spaces and transboundary issues of marine use in addition to the emergence of new industries While rich literature is being developed to help scope the Blue Economy broadly there is a relative paucity of literature from the existing and emerging Blue Economy plans around the world That is there is much to learn from the early planning and implementation of Blue Economy strategies from specific countries and regions where broad theories and frameworks are tested and adapted This Research Topic will catalyse greater attention to studying Blue Economy through the lens of national contexts This Research Topic seeks input from Original Research Methods Policy and Practice Reviews Perspectives Community Case Studies Policy Briefs and Brief Research Reports focusing on issues of Blue Economies from regions and nations with emerging or established Blue Economy plans and strategies Research themes can be around Issues of development planning Environmental impact assessment Marine spatial planning and multi criteria decision making Marine conservation Coastal communities Fisheries and aquaculture Offshore energy Marine tourism Or other topics relevant to national and regional Blue Economy plans
