

DANGEROUS DECEPTION

The image features a pair of broken sunglasses lying on a dark, textured wooden surface. The sunglasses have a silver-colored frame and dark lenses. One lens is shattered with a spiderweb pattern of cracks, and several pieces of the lens are scattered around it. The background is dark with intricate, glowing blue decorative swirls and flourishes that frame the title text.

Biblical Truths in Poetry HOPE E. BURNS, 2011-07-01 These poems deal mostly with Biblical issues Some address our human condition based on the Scriptures Others deal with unseen influences that many of us are unaware of but which impact our lives for better or worse They were written as a result of 21 years of studying the Bible Originally my journey into the Scriptures began as I sought solutions to my own problems However over the years it has become a quest for answers to life's deeper issues When I began reading the Bible I did not believe I would find solutions to my problems I started reading it out of desperation after I had exhausted books on philosophy and the occult and just about anything else I got my hands on I read many books promising the secret but they disappointed me It is really astonishing that a book which just about everyone has sitting around really has the answer to every human need I wrote these poems because I came to the realization that many people like me years ago do not believe in the spiritual And yet I believe it is evident that if we disregard Biblical teachings about the spiritual realms life simply does not make a lot of sense However it is also my experience that many people who claim to be spiritual do not understand what the Bible teaches about the spiritual realm that operates in the earth These poems were also written for people who have difficulty reading and understanding the Scriptures I try to clarify misunderstanding about many important Biblical issues such as Hell and pre destination They are written in simple poetic language for the benefit of anyone who is interested in Biblical Truth
