The Refractionist, 1926 The Gentleman's Magazine, 1881 Romantic Theory Leon Chai, 2006-07-31 Winner of the Jean Pierre Barricelli Prize given by the International Conference on Romanticism This original study explores the new idea of theory that emerged in the wake of the French Revolution Leon Chai sees in the Romantic age a significant movement across several broad fields of intellectual endeavor from theoretical concepts to an attempt to understand how they arise He contends that this movement led to a spatial treatment of concepts, the primacy of development over concepts, and the creation of metatheory or the formal analysis of theory Chai begins with P B Shelley on the need for conceptual framework or theory He then considers how Friedrich Wolf and Friedrich Schlegel shift from a preoccupation with antiquity to a heightened self awareness of Romantic nostalgia for that lost past He finds a similar reflexivity in Napoleon s battle plan at Jena and subsequently in Hegel s move from substance to subject Chai then turns to the sciences Xavier Bichat s rejection of the idea of a unitary vital principle for life as process the chemical theory of matter developed by Humphry Davy and the work of variste Galois whose proof of the solvability of equations using radicals ushered in the age of metatheory Chai concludes with reactions to theory Coleridge s proposal of the conflict between reason and understanding as a model of theory Mary Shelley s effort to replace theory with a different kind of relationship to external others and H lderlin s reflection on the limits of representation and the possibility of fulfillment beyond it Student Study Guide to accompany Alcamo's Fundamentals of Microbiology Jeffrey C.
