Beginnings 83:

A Social History of Christian Origins Simon J. Joseph, 2022-12-30 A Social History of Christian Origins explores how the theme of the Jewish rejection of Jesus embedded in Paul's letters and the New Testament Gospels represents the ethnic social cultural and theological conflicts that facilitated the construction of Christian identity Readers of this book will gain a thorough understanding of how a central theme of early Christianity the Jewish rejection of Jesus facilitated the emergence of Christian anti Judaism as well as the complex and multi faceted representations of Jesus in the Gospels of the New Testament This study systematically analyzes the theme of social rejection in the Jesus tradition by surveying its historical and chronological development Employing the social psychological study of social rejection social identity theory and social memory theory Joseph sheds new light on the inter relationships between myth history and memory in the study of Christian origins and the contemporary re construction of the historical Jesus A Social History of Christian Origins is primarily intended for academic specialists and students in ancient history biblical studies New Testament studies Religious Studies Classics as well as the general reader interested in the beginnings of Christianity

Beyond Authenticity, Alternative Approaches to Hadith Narrations and Collections Mohammad Gharaibeh, 2023-04-12 The studies in this volume go beyond the question of the authenticity of Prophetic narrations which has occupied the field of Hadith Studies for over a century By approaching hadith narrations and literature from various perspectives the authors seek to uncover the potential that hadith material has to better understand the intellectual and social history of Muslim societies Applying concepts and methods from other disciplines the authors study the materiality of hadith collections the places they were read and the ways they were incorporated in architecture Additionally they explore understudied genres such as the forty hadith the fa il a d th a l a k m and aw l collections As such they set a new course to push the field of Hadith Studies in a new direction

Counting Your Way Through 1-2-3 Cathie Hilterbran Cooper, 1997 A comprehensive annotated guide to 663 counting books divided into ten subject areas Each section includes a description of the subject area an annotated bibliography of related books and a number of activities that can be used in connection with counting and math books Reproducible activity pages are included in each section

Jews and Judaism in the Rabbinic Era Isaiah Gafni, 2019-01-04 This collection of essays by Isaiah M Gafni reflects over forty years of research on central issues of Jewish history in one of its formative eras Questions relating to representations of the past beginning with Josephus but primarily in rabbinic and post rabbinic literature represent an axial theme in this volume Throughout the collection the author addresses the tension between realities on the ground and the historiography that shaped the image of that reality for all subsequent generations Two specific clusters of studies analyze the emergence and development of the Babylonian rabbinic community as well as the complex relationship between the Judaeen centre and the Jewish diaspora in Late Antiquity A final selection of essays examines the impact of modern ideologies and revised methods of research on the image of Jewish life and rabbinic leadership in late antique Judaism Smart Growth Terry S. Szold, Armando Carbonell, 2010-03-15 Wall Street believes that all public companies should grow smoothly and continuously as evidenced by ever increasing quarterly earnings and that all companies either grow or die Introducing a research based growth model called Smart Growth Edward D Hess challenges this ethos and its dangerous mentality which often deters real growth and pressures businesses to create manufacture and purchase noncore earnings just to appease Wall Street Smart Growth accounts for the complexity of growth from the perspective of organization process change leadership cognition risk management employee engagement and human dynamics Authentic growth is much more than a strategy or a desired result It is a process characterized by complex change entrepreneurial action experimental learning and the management of risk Hess draws on extensive public and private company research incorporating case studies of Best Buy Sysco UPS Costco Starbucks McDonalds Coca Cola Room Board Home Depot Tiffany Company P G and Jet Blue With conceptual innovations such as an Authentic Earnings and Growth System framework a seven step growth funnel pipeline a Growth Decision Template and a Growth Risks Audit Hess provides a blueprint for an enduring business that strives to be better rather than simply bigger Archaeology and Preservation of Gendered Landscapes Sherene Baugher, Suzanne M. Spencer-Wood, 2010-03-11 Historical archaeology of landscapes initially followed the pattern of Classical Archaeology by studying elite men s gardens Over time particularly in North America the field has expanded to cover larger settlement areas but still often with ungendered and elite focus The editors of this volume seek to fill this important gap in the literature by presenting studies of gendered power dynamics and their effect on minority groups in North America Case studies presented include communities of Native Americans African Americans multi ethnic groups religious communities and industrial communities Just as the research focus has previously neglected the groups presented here so too has funding to preserve important archaeological sites As the contributors to this important volume present a new framework for understanding the archaeology of religious and social minority groups they also demonstrate the importance of preserving the cultural landscapes particularly of minority groups from destruction by the modern dominant culture A full and complete picture of cultural preservation has to include all of the groups that interacted form it

Paul and the Gospels Michael F. Bird, Joel Willitts, 2013-05-01 This volume which collects together the work of several established scholars attempts to situate the Apostle Paul the Pauline writings and the earliest Christian Gospels together in the context of early Christianity It addresses the issue of how the Christianity depicted in and represented by the individual Gospels relates to the vision of Christianity represented by Paul and the Pauline writings This raises such questions as to what extent did Paul influence the canonical and non canonical Gospels In what way are the Gospels reactions to Paul and his legacy A comparison of the Gospels and Paul on topics such as Old Testament Law Gentile mission Christology and early church leadership structures represents a fruitful area of study While a number of volumes have appeared that attempt to assess the relationship between the historical Jesus and the Apostle Paul relatively few studies on Paul and the Gospels have been published This volume excellently fills this gap in New Testament Studies and makes a valuable contribution to studies on Christian Origins Pauline research and the Gospels Asa Turner George Frederic Magoun,1889 Beginning Hiri Motu Thomas Edward Dutton,C.
