Civilization and Its Contents Bruce Mazlish,2004 Civilization is a constantly invoked term It is used by both politicians and scholars How useful in fact is this term Civilization and Its Contents traces the origins of the concept in the eighteenth century It shows its use as a colonial ideology and then as a support for racism The term was extended to a dead society Egyptian civilization and was appropriated by Japan China and Islamic countries This latter development lays the groundwork for the contemporary call for a dialogue of civilizations The author proposes instead that today the use of the term civilization has a global meaning with local variants recognized as cultures It may be more appropriate however to abandon the name civilization and to focus on a new understanding of the civilizing process Humans, Animals, and U.S. Society in the Long Nineteenth Century: A Documentary History Dominik Ohrem,2025-11-18 Volume II continues the discussion of animals animality in U S social and scientific thought to address the ways in which the nexus of ideas surrounding human animal distinctions became intertwined with interhuman hierarchies and power relations including through the synergistic dynamics between race and species as co implicating taxonomies of power Claire Jean Kim that informed both chattel slavery and settler violence against Indigenous peoples A second section traces the evolution of animal advocacy from early individual voices to the formation of an organised movement following the Civil War documenting a shift however limited by structural constraints from largely anthropocentric concerns with the social consequences of human cruelty towards other creatures to a broader moral consideration for nonhuman animals in their own right Humboldt library of science. no. 148 | pt. 1, 1892 ,1892 Humboldt library of science. no. 49, 1883 ,1883 The Idea of a University Defined and Illustrated John Henry Newman,1893 Political Science Quarterly ,1899 A review devoted to the historical statistical and comparative study of politics economics and public law Outline of a Course in the Philosophy of Education John Angus MacVannel,1912 Social Forces ,2006 Humboldt library of science. no. 95, 1887 ,1887 Sources of World Civilization Oliver A.
