Die Liebeslieder:

Prodesse et delectare Norbert Kössinger, Claudia Wittig, 2019-12-02 The Horatian formula prodesse et delectare was extremely influential in the production of texts across various languages and genres While indeed didactic elements can be attested to in almost any medieval text and while medieval literature displays a range of possibilities to teach and instruct the scope of the present volume is more closely focused on explicitly didactic literature This volume combines contributions that analyse didactic literature in high medieval Europe from different vantage points They open new perspectives on education as a working principle or legitimizing strategy in the heterogeneous forms of writing intended to convey knowledge This broad thematic linguistic and geographical scope enables us to view didactic literature as the universal phenomenon it was and prompts us to understand its influence on many aspects of society in high medieval Europe and beyond While the contributions explore case studies predominantly from this period of transition and the expansion of the categories of knowledge they also trace some of these developments into the later Middle Ages to spotlight the lasting influence of high medieval teaching and learning in literature The way medieval writers combine the pleasant with the useful is this book's main question The Later Cambridge Songs John E. Stevens, John Stevens, 2005 This is an edition of Cambridge University Library MS Ff I 17 1 a manuscript of 35 non liturgical songs in Latin of English provenance dating from the 12th century Apart from an edition in German and an edition published in Ottawa in 1989 the manuscript has not been widely studied In this edition the late Professor Stevens challenges the assumption that everything of real cultural interest was happening on the continent to be only palely imitated in insular Britain A facsimile of the original manuscript is also included Ballad Theory and Technique, 1913 Clara Schumann Berthold Litzmann, 1908 Monatsschrift Für Das Deutsche Geistesleben, 1926 Perspectives on the Song of Songs / Perspektiven der Hoheliedauslegung Anselm C. Hagedorn, 2012-02-13 The collection of essays contains nineteen contributions that aim at locating the Song of Songs in its ancient context as well as addressing problems of interpretation and the reception of this biblical book in later literature In contrast to previous studies this work devotes considerable attention to parallels from the Greek world without neglecting the Ancient Near East or Egypt Several contributions deal with the use of the Song in Byzantine Medieval German Romantic and modern Greek Literature Due to the interdisciplinary nature of the collection new perspectives and avenues of approach are opened The Black and Red, 1916 Spiritual Vegetation Guita Lamsechi, Beatrice Trînca, 2022-04-11 This volume concerns premodern understandings of vegetal nature that encompass multiple semantics and perspectives Scholars from the disparate fields of art history literature and religious studies present tantalizing studies of trees and plants in sacred and secular thought Some discuss the concept of the Book of Nature and its implications Others explore narratives of symbiosis between humans and vegetal material tree dwelling hermits spirits metamorphosing into wood flowers or trees that sprout from bodies or the dissolution of the self into the natural world Complementary to these approaches are studies that suggest a collapsing of time and space in spiritually charged yet ambiguous natural motifs or topographies where forests or groves are spaces of transformative experience

Ancient Egyptian Literature Antonio Loprieno, 2023-12-28 This volume deals with the development and the characteristics of the literature of Ancient Egypt over a period of more than two millennia from the monumental origins of autobiography at the end of the Old Kingdom ca 2150 BCE down to the latest literary compositions in Demotic during the Graeco Roman period 300 BCE 200 CE This book the result of an international co operation among more than twenty scholars is divided into sections devoted to the definition of literary discourse in Ancient Egypt the history and genres of these texts their linguistic and stylistic features and the image of Ancient Egypt as displayed in later literary traditions of the Mediterranean world Greek Coptic Arabic With over thirty chapters this volume provides an interdisciplinary account of current research in one of the methodologically most advanced fields of Egyptology
