Die Restauration Des Schonen:

Ecology and German Realism Alexander Robert Phillips, 2025 Shows contrary to the traditional view that the major authors of German literary realism not only thematized environmental transformation but that it was central to their aesthetics In nineteenth century Europe and particularly in Germany the industrial revolution led to air and water pollution urban and industrial sprawl and the physical reconstitution of natural landscapes This book investigates the relationship between environmental degradation and German Realist aesthetics challenging a longstanding argument in the scholarship that German Realism largely occluded urban and industrial realities by demonstrating that its major authors Adalbert Stifter Wilhelm Raabe Theodor Storm and Theodor Fontane not only thematized environmental matters but that environmental transformation became the very condition for their texts reflections on the aesthetic representation of reality German Realist aesthetics in this sense are thus inseparable from environmental aesthetics Environmental aesthetics in turn are inseparable from environmental politics connected as they are to problems such as the loss of individual livelihoods displacement of communities and the legal and ethical standing of animals plants and landscapes By exploring how these problems appear in the fiction of the period Alexander Phillips s book situates the literature in a longer genealogy of environmentalism and ecological aesthetics beyond Germany That genealogy includes the early twentieth century Nature Fakers debate in the United States twentieth century nature writing and contemporary ecocritical theory

The Taming of Romanticism Virgil Nemoianu, 1984 Looking at a broad spectrum of writers English French German Italian Russian and other East Europeans Virgil Nemoianu offers here a coherent characterization of the period 1815 1848 This he calls the era of the domestication of romanticism The explosive visionary core of romanticism is seen to give way after the defeat of Napoleon to an expanded and softer version reflecting middle class values This later form of romanticism is characterized by moralizing efforts to reform society a sentimental yearning for the tranquility of home and hearth and persistent faith in the individual alongside a new skepticism shattered ideals and consequent irony Expanding the application of the term Biedermeier which has been useful in describing this period in German literature Nemoianu provides a new framework for understanding these years in a wider European context

The Marble Statue as Idea Christine Oertel Sjögren, 2020-05-01 Each of the nine essays in this illuminating study of Der Nachsommer focuses on heretofore overlooked details of the novel As all the phenomena presented are oriented toward fulfillment of their highest potential the novel emerges as a powerful assertion of the intent to achieve classical form in all things despite the ever present threat of dissolution and chaos With such emphasis upon the achievement of perfection Der Nachsommer itself becomes a masterly exemplification of Stifter s concept Gestalt with its full ethical connotations

The German Bildungsroman Michael Minden, 1997-04-17 This book was originally published in 1997 The Bildungsroman the story of the development or formation of a young man is the most famous German contribution to the European novel Most studies of the Bildungsroman have concentrated on its underlying philosophy Michael Minden addresses it as literature He offers detailed readings of some of the best known novels in the German language from Goethe to Mann including Wilhelm Meisters Lehrjahre Agathon Anton Reiser Hyperion Heinrich von Ofterdingen Der gr ne Heinrich Der Nachsommer and Der Zauberberg Looking at the novels from the points of view of gender subjectivity and the ideology of the aesthetic and taking account of the literary theory Minden uncovers aspects and motifs which subvert traditional ideas of the Bildungsroman and raise questions about the function and status of literature Adalbert Stifter's Late Prose

Helena Ragg-Kirkby,2000 Provides a view of the late Stifter as a forerunner of twentieth century modernism Adalbert Stifter has always been viewed as a natural heir to the Great Classical tradition even by those critics who detect disturbing subtexts in his fiction But he should be viewed quite differently however well disguised he is in truth a closet modernist and a major trailblazer for Kafka and the Absurd This is most evident in his late fiction which has been almost universally ignored dismissed or disparaged by his critics His last novel Witiko in particular has been conspicuously neglected by both nineteenth and twentieth century critics Ragg Kirkby demonstrates largely by way of close reading that this is Stifter s extreme masterpiece Beneath the surface of Biedermeier stuffiness is a vision of fracture emptiness meaninglessness and mania not only more radical than that of any other 19th century author but arguably more radical than that of any 20th century author precisely because there is such a disjuncture between text and sub text In his final novel Stifter simply leaves the future behind Helena Ragg Kirkby is a lecturer in German at the University of Sheffield Die Restauration Des Schonen ,1965

Politics in German Literature Beth Bjorklund,Mark E. Cory,1998 New readings of a variety of works in German literature taking as a theme the conflict between the aims of politics and literature The essays presented here invite reflection on a considerable sweep of German literature with representation from the medieval period to the present day A common focus on politics appropriately a subject of deep concern to Professor Ryder unites the articles written from the perspective of American Germanists European wars and revolutions political divisions and attempts at unification and periods of emancipation or persecution are viewed through the illuminating lens of literature the tension between aesthetic and ideological goals between the aims of literature and politics informs the works chosen for analysis and the conflict between the certainties of politics and the ambiguities of literature becomes evident in these new readings of both familiar and less well known works BETH BJORKLAND is Professor of German at the University of Virginia MARK E COREY is Professor of German at the University of Arkansas Contributors HORST LANGE PAUL MICHAEL L TZELER RICHARD T GRAY MARGARET E WARD RONALD HORWEGE BETH BJORKLUND DAVID CHISHOLM MICHAEL W JENNINGS DAVID SCRASE RAY WAKEFIELD MARKE CORY MICHAEL MORTON Gypsies and Orientalism in German Literature and Anthropology of the Long Nineteenth Century
